had to which the alarming extent to which the Civil and Military Expenditure of Government is increasing from year to year. We have practically one head of Revenue which is prosperous at present, namely, the head "Excise" and the Expenditure under almost every head shows a tending to increase. There is no limit to useful Expenditure but it is essential that We must cut our coat according to our cloth, and I would respectfully suggest that the present opportunity be taken to abolish the Malaria and Semi Malaria allowance altogether.

5 I have been asked for my opinion on the question of funds but I submit I may not be considered out of order if I refer to the policy of the arrangement I understand the allowance is given because some of the districts are unhealthy but such a distinction for making a difference in the emoluments of officers is never made in the Govt of India. Most of the Rural districts however are more malarious and only the Cholera epi-districts are healthy. Officers are very anxious to avoid the Bengal districts but on the average during their whole service some years are passed in unhealthy and some in unhealthy districts.

Strictly speaking the conditions of appointment of Gazetted officers ~~under~~ enforce their liability to transfer from one district to another and no one officer can take his appointment under the belief that ~~that~~ he will be allowed to remain in a healthy district all along. Nor is it ~~expedient~~ expedient that Government should undertake to compensate its officers for such differences in climate. It opens the door to many objectionable demands and very inconvenient practices.

Government is a big employer of labour and like all other employers of labour it offers a certain rate of remuneration for the work expected of its employes. The employes know very well that by the terms of their appointment they are exposed to some risks in an unhealthy district and knowing this they accept special allowance it is the Govt policy to fix the scale pay of offices so as to compensate them for such disa men in particular localities.

& The only test of the unsuitability
a general scale of pay for any class offices is the deterioration of the char acter of the ~~recruit~~ recruits and i is very desirable that Govern ment should operate only upon the general pay of the class as a whole and not upon the emoluments of individual according to their local habitation
I think in the case of Establishm it is still more objectionable to fix int
these local allowances when the Es Establishment are recruited largely fr
the local men and if the Subs inst

then there is no cause for a lo

Sentence and accordingly the only special allowance that seems to be instituted is an allowance for clearness of provisions in the case of men on convict duty who get Rs 10 or Rs 12. If the clerks on Rs 20 or Rs 25 are not entitled to allowance for clearness of provisions which is required to sustain life a person it is not admissible for improving health.

(2) I therefore venture very respectfully to submit that Government should extend the allowance to men who do not get it at present.

(3) I would point out that the statement of financial effect prepared in this office does not include Military & Public Works Establishments.

Comptrollers of 6th May 1905

My dear Mr. ShamaRao,

Your D.O. of the 3rd instant regarding Malnad and Semi-Malnad allowances.

My statement calculated the cost as regards Establishment only because the previous correspondence on the subject was only about these allowances to Establishment and not about those to officers also; and the last reference from the Secretariat is also not quite clear as to whether the allowances granted to officers also should be included in the calculation hence the omission you refer to. Perhaps the technical distinction between officers and Establishment is not so apparent to outsiders.

I now enclose another statement showing the allowances drawn at present by officers which comes up to Rs 13500/- per annum

If

If this is also stopped, the net additional cost to government under the change under consideration would be Rs 26706/-

Yours truly

margin have to be relied on — the Earliest dating from the year 1889. These do not seem to enunciate any specific rule regulating the grant of the allowances but it does show that the grant of Malnad allowances was first initiated in a year subsequent to those of the British Commission. Costly living and unhealthy character of the Climate of the Malnad Taluks have been the main points of consideration in the granting of these allowance

It also appears that the Grant was confined to Officers only. In 1897 when revision of the Scale of the Salaried Establishment was undertaken the concession was extended to the Revenue Establishments of Talluks in Malnad. The other Departments of Govt (e.g. P.W.D. Etc) solicited for a similar treatment of the officials of their departments with the result that it is assumed the magnitude

In regard to the history of the grant of Malcolmi Allowances I have gone through the Administration Reports of the Punnee for the last fifty years commencing from 1857 and tried to glean what information I could from the papers available from the Records. But my efforts in this direction have not proved successful as the question is not dealt with in these Reports and I have not been able to trace it up to its source. A precis of the orders available on the subject is given in the above office note. It does not appear that beyond the enhancement and the customs of giving in these tracts any other considerations entered into the question of the grant of these allowances.

V. Subject.- (Clause v.)

Continuance or otherwise of the grant of Malnad and Semi-malnad allowances to officers and the establishments.

O P I N I O N.

The Council considers that the time has come to abolish Malnad and Semi-malnad allowances in the case of higher officers, viz., Deputy Commissioners, District Judges, Assistant Superintendents of Police and officers of similar status in all Departments, and recommend that these allowances be abolished, but that the change need not apply to officers now holding such appointments in the Malnad but only to their successors. The cases of Amildars and Deputy Amildars, however, differ from those of other officers, as they do not get any special rate of travelling allowances for the Malnad as in the case of other officers. The Malnad allowance given to them may therefore be continued for the present.

Submitted to His Highness.

This file relates to the question of the continuance or otherwise of the Malnad and Semi-Malnad allowances now granted to officers and establishments in certain departments of the State and their extension to officers of other departments.

The grant of these allowances dates from about the year 1889 and seems to have been originally limited to the Amildars and Deputy Amildars of certain Taluks and Sub-Taluks. In the year 1897, when the revision of the Taluk establishments was effected, the concession was extended to the Revenue establishments of the Malnad and Semi-Malnad Taluks, and in 1899 they were extended to the P.W.D. office establishments in certain Taluks. In the year 1901, such allowances were refused to the District office establishments and those of other departments.

The P.W.D. however continued urging the necessity for Malnad allowances for officers, and the last reminder from that department is dated 1st October 1904.

The subject was placed before the late Council in January 1905, when it was resolved that the continuance of Malnad allowances was generally inexpedient and that they should cease with the persons then drawing them, either when such persons ceased to hold such appointments or when they were transferred elsewhere. At the same time the Council held that officials of all departments whose pay was not above Rs.30, serving in Malnad and Semi-Malnad tracts should be given the allowance prescribed in Government Order No.11906A/ Mis.F.35-1896, dated the 30th April 1897, for Taluk establishments.

Before however giving effect to the above resolution, the late Dewan Sir P.N. Krishna Murti called for a statement showing the additional expenditure which these proposals would involve.

Malnad allowance.	Rs.
For officials whose pay was between Rs.25 and 30 - - -	3 each.
For those whose pay was less than Rs.20 -	2 each.
For menials - -	1
Semi-Malnad allowance.
Half the above rates.

H

Paper under disposal

The statements furnished by the Comptroller show that at present the cost of these allowances are as follows:-

Deputy Commissioners, District Judge, and Police Superintendents	- - -	Rs.6,600
Special Malnad allowance to Mr. Syed Amir Hassan	-	" 1,200
Amildars and Deputy Amildars		" 6,900 ✓
Taluk establishments	-	" 9,534 ✓
Forest establishment	-	" 1,326 ✓
P.W.D. establishment	-	" 768 ✓
		Rs. 26,328.

Enclosure to Paper under disposal

It is calculated that it would cost Rs.58,842 per annum if the concession is extended only to the establishments of all departments drawing a pay of Rs.30 and under, and Rs.54,030 if restricted to establishments of all departments drawing a pay of Rs.20 and under. Either concession would involve a large recurring additional charge.

The question having remained under consideration, it was taken up by the present Council, and the appended extract of Council proceedings contains their views in the matter, which may be approved.

As regards office establishments, it is not possible to grant Malnad allowances to officials of all departments who are not now drawing such allowances, but I am of opinion that the Taluk and other establishments who are in receipt of such allowances at present may continue to draw them.

The present recommendations will eventually result in a saving of Rs.7,800 per annum.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Financial (Salaries and Allowances), dated 29th November 1906.

No. Fl. 3981-4025—S. & A. 539-04-6, dated Bangalore, 29th November 1906.

Order.—The Government have had before them for some time past the question of the continuance or otherwise of the grant of malnad or semi-malnad allowances. On a careful consideration of the whole matter they are of opinion that there is no longer any necessity to continue these allowances in the case of the higher officers, viz., Deputy Commissioners of Districts, District Judges, Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents of Police and officers of similar status in all Departments. The malnad and semi-malnad allowances attached to these appointments are accordingly abolished; but this will not apply to officers now holding such appointments but only to their successors.

2. The cases of Amildars and Deputy Amildars, however, differ from those of other offices as they do not get any special rate of travelling allowance for the malnad; these officers and the taluk and other establishments who are now in receipt of such allowances will, for the present, be permitted to draw them.

3. Government are not prepared to grant such allowances to the officials of any Departments who are not already in receipt of the same.
